Ogden, Jan. 30 .- The local members of the Spanish war veterans are receiving from the quartermaster-general of the United States army the bronze medals given by Congress for their service in the Philippines during the Filipino insurrection. The medals are the "special service medal" and are being worn with great pride by the former soldiers.

The medals are from the government mint at Philadelphia and are of a very neat design. The face has a group of three soldiers, one carrying an American flag. In the oval around the soldiers is an inscription "Philippins Insurrection—1899." On the reverse side is "For Patriotism, Fortitude and set in a wreath of palm
